“ My brother, my Rev. my heart is literally broken!! I would Have NEVER thought I would have to live without you. People tell me that my memories will keep me going but that's what's KILLING me!! We had SO many. My brother, until I see you again, just know a lot of me went with you!! I'll eternally love you, my Rev., My brother.

“ I remember in 1996, the first time I met Keith. He was a single man raising two little girls. I always admired him for those qualities of being a father. All through the years we still remain friends and I will hold those times to be so grandiose.

My sincere and heartfelt condolences goes out to his family.
