

Mr. L E Adams

December 24, 1938 - November 30, 2022

Mr. LE Adams was born December 24, 1938 in Brandon, Mississippi to the late Esau and Minnie Lee Adams.

LE grew up in the Fannin Community and received his education at the Fannin School in Rankin County.

He was employed with the City of Jackson for many years.

L E was a faithful and devoted member of Fannin Missionary Baptist Church until his health failed him.

He will be remembered for his famous saying, "right now, right now" and "who said that". LE's favorite past time was fishing, hunting and dancing.

L E leaves to cherish his memories four children: Delores Morris, Geraldine Morrow, Dwayne Adams and Venessa (Bobby) Taylor; seventeen grandchildren, twenty-five great grandchildren, a special niece, Sharetta Smith and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Preceding him in death were his loving wife Ora Lee Adams; two sons: Leon Adams and Eddie Steve Adams; four siblings: Louise Bilbro, Lawrence

Adams, Mildred Smith and Esau Adams, Jr.
