

Mrs. Lela Mae McCoy

May 28, 1921 - April 24, 2021

Mrs. Lela Mae McCoy was born Lela Mae McLaurin in Covington County to Givens and Chattie McLaurin.

She grew up in Covington County, later moving to Rankin County, where she met and married Charlie McCoy. Lela McCoy joined Wesley Chapel Methodist and served as Head Usher and Mother to the church until her health no longer allowed her to.

She enjoyed helping others when she could. Also enjoying watching and seeing her family grow.

She leaves to cherish her memories: one daughter Eula Mae Holmes; five grandchildren: Jean C. Henderson, Gregory D. Holmes, Eugene Holmes Jr., Felecia Taylor, and Raymond Thompson; eight great children, eleven great grandchildren and a host of nieces and nephews.

“ To our Dearest Aunt Lela. You were the last of 6 children born to Frank Givens and Shelley McLaurin. We will always cherish the wonderful visits of you coming to Gary to visit us as well as our visits to Mississippi to see you. Your loving nieces and nephews, the McLaurin Family - children of your late Brother and Sister-in-law Leddrew (Bud) and Mary (Mae)
