

Leroy Johnson, Jr.

December 25, 1945 - April 4, 2018

Leroy Johnson, Jr. was born on December 25, 1945 to Esther Rogers and Leroy Johnson, Sr. He was one of ten children. They met in Arkansas and moved their family to California in 1952. Leroy attended McClymonds High School and Laney College in Oakland, CA. Shortly after he joined the military and served as a diver. He returned to California and joined the East Bay Dragons Motorcycle Club in Oakland, CA. He also began working at General Motors Corporation, where he was a dedicated worker for over 30 years. Leroy loved American Muscle Cars and Harley Davidson Motorcycles. He loved riding the open road while playing his blues visiting family and friends and making new friends along the way. He retired from General Motors and moved to Brandon, MS, where he lived the last 18 years of his life. Brandon became his second home, where he was surrounded by loving friends much like family. You could always count on Leroy to be by your side through good times and bad. He was a man of few words, but when he spoke, he knew exactly what to say. He leaves behind his only child, Joy, and a host of aunts, uncles, sisters, brothers, cousins, nephews, nieces and extended family and friends.

“ Leroy was in our neighborhood, motorcycles in common with my husband, he knew I liked bottle trees and frequently dropped off beautiful blue bottles for my trees. A very kind and thoughtful man. Sure do miss seeing him around. Steve and Judy Perry

I worked in three of the same GM plants that Leroy did. Many of us transferred to other plants. He was our parts delivery man that rode a truck. Many people new him. Always playing the blues no matter what he was driving!
