

Mrs. Levertis Luvene

December 2, 1946 - December 23, 2025

Mrs. Levertis Luvene was born on December 2, 1946, in Florence, MS, to Ted and Gertrude Mangum. She was called home on December 23, 2025. Levertis grew up in Pearl, MS. She worked at the University of Michigan Medical Center and as a licensed cosmetologist for over 40 years before retiring. She shared her life with her one-time love, George W. Luvene, for 55 years.

It was not rare to find Levertis doing her favorite thing: remodeling, crafting, and creating. Levertis also enjoyed thrifting and finding treasures in things others regarded as trash. Her smile and laugh were infectious and could change the mood of a room. She was a prayer warrior and Lived her life dedicated to Christ and his people.

Levertis was affectionately known to all as mother or momma. She leaves to mourn her passing, 8 children:

Cortize, George, Jr., Patrick (Cheryl, Cecil (Ellyse), Chanda Jermaine), Catherine John), Marseth (Ameika), and Faith. She also leaves to mourn 18 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren, and one adopted daughter, Gloria Davis, and a host of nieces, nephews, friends, and family.

She was preceded in death by her husband, George W. Luvene, her parents, Ted and Gertrude Mangum, and 9 brothers and sisters.

Levertis will be missed by all those who knew her. Her love was unconditional, her strength was palpable, and her life unforgettable.
