

Rev. Lewis Edward Carter

February 23, 1952 - December 9, 2024

Lewis Edward Carter was born on February 23, 1952, in Pinola, Mississippi to the union of Emmanuel and Alma Lee Carter.

He received Christ as his personal Savior at an early age and was baptized into the Christian faith, uniting with New Hymm Missionary Baptist Church.

After graduating high school Lewis attended college at Prentiss Institute for one year then left school and moved to Chicago, Illinois where he met and married Marlien Carter. To this union two children were born. After the death of his wife Marlien in 1982, Lewis and his daughters moved back to Pinola, Mississippi. In 1987, Lewis met Lorine Gibson, and they were married August 8, 1988, to this union he gained a stepdaughter.

Reverend Lewis Edward Carter lived a life full of love, faithfulness, joy and happiness. Reverend Carter made his transition from this earthly life to his Heavenly Home on Monday, December 9, 2024. He was preceded in death by two siblings' Edward Carter and Peggy Carter.

He leaves to cherish his memory; his wife of 36 years, Lorine Gibson Carter; his two daughters Tarsha (Thomas) Fairley and Stacey Carter; step daughter Sharron (Bobby) Kendrick; four grandchildren, Thomas Brewer, Jhaven Fairley, Destin Barnett, and Trajan Sanford; four sisters Earlean Hubbard, Helen (Edward) Dixon, Beverly (DC) Williams and Minnie (Lonnie) Page; three brothers, Henry (Carolyn) Carter, Reverend James Earl (Yvonne) Carter and Pressie (Emma) Carter. A host of in-laws, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends along with church families.
