

Mrs Lillie Rose Hines

July 24, 1927 - September 12, 2019

On Thursday, September 12, 2019 Lillie Rose fulfilled the schedule God planned for her. God whispered, "Well done my child" and He called her home.

After retiring, she moved back home to Mississippi and rejoined the Jerusalem Church Family where she faithfully attended Sunday School, Bible Study and prayer meetings. “ My oldest sister Rose was a precious and loving part of our family. She had a kind and gentle spirit and I will truly miss her. Her laughter would brighten up whatever mood you were in because it was so infectious. Her memories will forever be with all of us. The most important thing about her life was her love the Lord and she tried to live a life pleasing to him. Rest well my big sister. With much love, Mae
