“ My deepest condolences to the family. Linda was like a second mother to me, but also a friend. However, the best title is Sister-in-Christ. She loved the Lord and it showed through her actions. She loved on people so hard that it was impossible not to love her in return. We grew close during our times together in the prison ministry and next thing I knew, she was spending the night at my house:-) She was there for me when my family was hundreds of miles away. God would have it so that we even shared the same last name. Her acts of kindness were so vast, but one I will never forget is when she watched over my firstborn after he came home from the hospital so that I could get some rest. She did this while working a full-time job, caring for others. When asked later if I was able to really rest with my baby in the other room, I responded, not really. She said that'll never change. Even when they get older, as a mother, you'll always be concerned about them. You'll always think about them.

To her sons (Tyson, Kendrick, and Mike), she talked about you often and wanted nothing but the best for you all. Although these days may be tough and challenging to get through, trust in the Lord as your mother would want you to do. It will take time to adjust to life without her, but most importantly, it will take the strength of God to see you through. We love you.

“ Lynn, my dear sweet sister, I am really going to miss you more than I can ever say. We have been a part of one another's lives longer than either of us can remember. It's going to be so hard living without you but I will always carry you in my heart until we're together again. I am glad I had the opportunity to spend the last weeks with you though I tried so hard to keep you from knowing how it hurt me to see what you were going through. Thank God, he did what was best and gave you rest.

So sleep on my dear Sweet Sister and take your rest, we all love you but God loves you best.

Your Sister Mary
