

Mrs. Linda Jase Wilson Adam

August 23, 1949 - January 4, 2024

Linda Jase Wilson Adam was born on August 23, 1949, in Jackson, MS to the late Magdalene and Isaiah Wilson. She departed this life on Thursday, January 4, 2024, at her daughter's home surrounded by her loving family.

She accepted Christ at an early age and was an active member of Oak Grove MB Church until her death. She grew up in Jackson, MS with her four siblings. Upon leaving high school she went on to work at Klingler Electronics for over 30 years.

A woman of faith she filled her days with scripture and prayer. She loved to fish and was a skilled gardener. She loved interior decorating and collected unique porcelain figurines. Her greatest passion was loving and caring for her family.

She is preceded in death by her parents, her brothers Freddie L. Wilson, Luther "Roy" Wilson, and Willie Earl "Bimbo" Wilson. Three former husbands Mr. Tommie Barber, Mr. Larry Coleman, and her late husband whom she referred to "as the best man she ever met" Mr. Willie B. "Sonny" Adams.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories her three children Shunda Oliver (Eddie), Keschia Fleming, and Tommie Barber, sister, Vonceal Young, brother Percy Wilson, Seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends..
