

Mr. London Bernard Long

November 24, 1985 - October 22, 2023

The Best Man We Know. Born November 24, 1985, in Jackson, MS to Theodore Mays and Sherrey Long and raised by his loving uncle and aunt Oris Reno Lanier and Shirley Lanier-Jackson.

London always answered the call for help. He was loved by everyone who knew him young or old, rich or poor, black or white. He was known as "Uncle London", "Uncle Ruckus (no relation)", but most knew him as London Long (If you know you know).

By trade he was a painter and electrician, and it is believed that he has added a switch, re-wired a house, hung a tv, or painted a house for everyone in Jackson, MS and its surrounding area.

He was a father and a grandfather, and he took on those roles seamlessly. He was his brother's keepers, and his sister's first love. He made every mother that called him son proud and feel seen. He made every friend believe they were his best friend.

He was honest and hardworking. He never gave up and worked through every problem until there was a solution. He was a provider, a protector, and the epitome of a husband. He left this world as a believer of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and never stopped trusting God.

There will never be another London Long. He left a legacy that will reach beyond generations. What he taught us we will never forget, what he meant to us will never be replaced, and the memories we have of him will never be erased. Long Live London Long!

London was preceded in death by Oris Reno Lanier (father), Willie Ruth Jones (Grandmother), Abbie "Madea" Brown Dotson (Great Grandmother), George GW Luvane (father-in-law).

He leaves to mourn, Faith Long (Wife), Cainan Luvane (son), Messiah Luvane (grandson), Shirley Jean Dotson Lanier (mother), Sherrey Telesia Long (birth mother), Theodore London Christopher Mays (birth father), four brothers; Alvin Wiley Long, Kruz Lee Long (Shatundra Bunzy), Arlandra Funchess, and Oris Wiley Lanier (Tomice), and one sister Summer Long. One special Aunt, Dannett Clay (Stanley), and mother-in-law Levertis Luvane.

He also leaves to mourn a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, brother and sister in laws, and friends.
