

Mrs. Louise Evans-Stewart

October 5, 1941 - June 4, 2022

Louise Evans-Stewart was born October 5, 1941, in Sandhill Mississippi. She was the 5th child of Finch Evans and Pearl Brooks. As a young child, Louise accepted Jesus Christ and was baptized at Pisgah Baptist church. She attended Carter High school where she, despite her small stature, was a star basketball player. She loved to play basketball and often told stories about how good she was. After high school, she met her first love Clay Redd whom she birthed two children with. A few short years later, she welcomed the birth of her youngest son.

Louise moved to Chicago with her children in 1967. She was employed at Molded Plastic Company for over 20 years. Always a hard worker, Louise took great pride into doing her job well. She settled on the westside of Chicago where she resided for over 25 years. It was there where she met her first husband, Robert Stewart whom she married in 1997. They later relocated to New Orleans, LA.

After the passing of her first husband in 2001, she returned to Sandhill, Mississippi where she lived on her family's acres of land. She loved taking care of her two dogs- Eddie and Prince, whom she adored. It was in Mississippi where she met her second husband Henry Dean and married at the age of 70 in 2011. Louise loved cooking southern soul food dishes and listening to music. Always the life of the party, Louise loved to have fun. It was common to see her dancing and having a good time. There was never a dull moment in her presence.

Louise was preceded in death by her parents Finch and Pearl Evans, husbands Robert Stewart and Henry Dean; brothers Otis, Earl, Arthur, and Percy Evans; sister Gladys Jones, and one brother-in-law, Cleo Jones; nephews Roger, Timothy, Finch, III, Ricardo Evans, and Otis Jones.

Louise leaves to cherish her memory forever- Daughter Linda of Jackson, MS, whom was also her caregiver her until her transition. Sons- Mike (Phyllis) of Chicago, IL, Douglas of Sandhill, MS, and James of New Orleans, LA. Grand Daughter Brenda and Great grandson Bryson of Chicago, IL. Sister Earnestine of Las Vegas, NV and brother Finch Jr of Chicago, IL. Sisters in law- Louise, Darlene, Beatrice, and Dorothy. As a blended family full of love, she also leaves to cherish her memory inherited grandchildren- Brandi, Anthony, Jaimee, Jamesha, Johnny, and Yashika. As well as a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends who will all miss her dearly.
