

Mrs. Lucille Kern

January 8, 1938 - September 20, 2020

Lucille Haralson Kern was born January 8, 1938 in Collins, MS to Wylie and Addie Luvane. She accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior at an early age. She became a member of Mount Elam Church in Pearl, MS, where she was a devoted member until her health failed.

Lucille was employed with the Mississippi State Hospital in Pearl, MS for 30 plus years. After retirement, she later obtained employment with J.J. Learning Center in Pearl, MS where she remained until her health failed her. Upon moving to Rankin County years ago, she met and married Exo Haralson and to this union four children were born. Lucille leaves to cherish her memories: two sons, Ex Earl Haralson (Sammie), Vicksburg, MS, Danny Haralson, Pearl, MS; two daughters, Addie Carter (Curtis) Brandon, MS, Willie Jean Swayzer (Kenny) Terry, MS; one God daughter, Donna Rogers, Flowood, MS; two sisters, Martha Jean Hobson, Yvonne Luvane of Jackson, MS; three brothers, Bobby Lee Luvane, Detroit, MI, Sammie Luvane, New Jersey and Henry Luvane, Chicago, IL; four siblings preceded her in death. She also leaves five grandchildren, Louquita (Mike) Martin, Yolanda (Tony) Williams, Teena (Walter) Maberry, April Carter, Patricia (Emmila) Pollard; one special nephew, Dennis Luvane; eight great grandchildren, Josh, Zack, Mayce, Trey, Michela, Mikenzie, Addison and Aubrie; one great-great grandchild, Kylee and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ *Dear Jean, Quita & Family,
My heart aches for you because I know how your heart breaks when you lose someone who has been so deeply rooted in your life.
As hard as it is- we take comfort in knowing that God is with us and He will guide us through the hurt! To God be the Glory because he has transitioned Ms. Lucille to her heavenly home just as He has promised for all of us who will believe.
I am praying for you and send you much love . eater*
