

Mr. Lynioun Sims

November 7, 1938 - October 5, 2022

Mr. Lynioun Sims entered this world on November 7, 1938, in Simpson County, Mississippi. He was born to the late Oscar Sims and Coree Butler-Sims. He was the eldest son of eight children. He was preceded in death by his eldest son Carl Lynn Sims, grandson David Franklin, and two of his siblings Ethel Mae Young and John Oscar Sims.

Lynioun accepted Christ at an early age and united with Enoch Grove Missionary Baptist Church. He was an active church member and trustee. Lynioun was well known and loved the Florence community for his wisdom, loving personality, and his kindness in lending a helping hand. He was a member of the South Rankin County Farmers Association.

Lynioun met and fell in love with his beautiful wife Mable McGee Sims, and they were married on February 25, 1960. God blessed their union with three wonderful children.

Lynioun began his working career with Underwood Construction in Jackson, Mississippi. He later worked with Bethany Dairy Farms in Florence, Mississippi. His long-time career was with Chloride (GNB) battery manufacturer in Florence, Mississippi. While there he was a supervisor for over 35 years. Lynioun was a hardworking man and was very passionate at cutting pulp wood with his two sons and cousins. His hobbies were farming, weed eating, and riding his tractor.

Lynioun leaves to cherish his memories a devoted wife of 62 years, Mable McGee Sims; his son Christopher Douglas Sims (Geneva) of Jackson, Mississippi and a loving and caring daughter Phyllis Teresa Sims-Rankin of Florence, MS; Nine grandchildren: Sherida Hicks, Antonio Rankin, Christopher L. Sims, Corrie Sims, Samantha Rankin, Amanda Rankin, Tiara Sims, Brandy McGinnis, Daniel Franklin; siblings Edna Mae Buckhaultler of Jackson, Mississippi, James Sims (Marydell) of Bassfield, Mississippi, Dorothy Ann Sims of Jackson, Mississippi, Burnell Sims (Connie) of Cleveland, Ohio, Deloris Thompson of Jackson, Mississippi, one sister-in-law Mary Helen McGee of Florence, Mississippi and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
