October 17, 1946 - August 2, 2023

With only a seventh-grade education, Mamie obtained several jobs in the city of Jackson, Mississippi Mamie got the most joy working as a transportation operator for Jackson Public Schools for over 20 years and for The Mississippi School for the blind for several years before retiring.

Being an avid outdoors person, Mamie was a true fisherwoman. She loved catching coolers of fish and having fish fries with her family: in the prime of her life Mamie enjoyed hosting dance contests on weekends. She expressed her affections for her family on a daily basis reminding each of us how much she loved and cherished us.

Marie was a passionate fan of the Blues music genre. She possessed an extensive collection of many of histories exceptional blues artist. As many of you may know, Marie was a practical joker who enjoyed playing with her grandchildren by dressing up with scary monster masks and chasing them around her house fall in good fun! Mamie increased her religious conviction and found spiritual consolation by virtually attending the Galilee Baptist Church of Detroit Michigan, pastored by her son-in-law, Tells Chapman.
