

Mrs. Marie Antroinette Grant

August 26, 1970 - November 5, 2025

On August 26, 1970, Mrs. Marie Antroinette Grant, affectionately known as "Ree," was born to Birdie Mae Lee Grant and the late Mr. Jimmy Lee Grant, Sr. in Goshen Springs, Mississippi. On November 5, 2025, Marie peacefully transitioned from this life into eternity.

Marie grew up in Goshen Springs, Mississippi, and attended Pisgab High School, where she graduated in 1990. She later continued her education at Minds Community College, earning a Certificate in Child Care Development. With a heart for children, Marie devoted many years of her life to working in childcare, touching countless families with her kindness, patience, and nurturing spirit.

Marie confessed Christ at an early age and became a devoted member of Pilgrim Branch M.B. Church. She served faithfully as a choir member and active church participant. Marie lived her faith daily—not only as a Christian woman, but as a loving wife, mother, daughter, grandmother, and loyal friend to all who knew her.

Marie was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Greg White, who lovingly stood by her side. Although she was committed to her church, Marie's greatest joy came from spending time with her husband, her mother, her beloved granddaughter, her children, and her family and friends. She was known for her generous heart, gentle nature, and her willingness to give without ever expecting anything in return.

Marie leaves to cherish her precious memory: her devoted husband, Mr. Greg White; her son, Demorian Grant of Brandon, MS; two daughters, Sabrina Rose" Grant of Slidell, LA, and Maria Adams (Morris Coffey) of Brandon, MS; one brother, Jimmy Lee Grant, Jr.: and her cherished granddaughter, Maliyah Lee Coffey.

She is also survived by a host of cousins, in-laws, extended relatives, and friends who will miss her dearly.
