

Mrs. Mary Lou Brown

January 30, 1927 - September 14, 2018

On September 14, 2018, Mary Lou Taylor Brown, one of God's humble and faithful servants, transitioned from her earthly body to a place of eternal rest.

Mary was the fifth child born on January 30, 1927 in Fannin, Mississippi to Mary Etta Lawson Taylor and Rufus Taylor, Sr.

She grew up in the Fannin Community and joined her family church, Mt Helm Missionary Baptist Church and attended Fannin Community School.

On July 7, 1963, she united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Earl Bamett Brown who preceded her in death. As she matriculated into a young adult, it was evident that she had a passion for sewing. Using her sewing skills, she designed, altered and recreated clothing for men, women and children.

As her sewing expertise grew, it quickly caught the attention of local store merchants. She did alterations for Rick and Vicks Men's Clothing Store and other boutiques in the Jackson, Mississippi area. It was this same passion, Mary transformed her God's Gift into entrepreneurship, thus establishing "Mary Lou's Alterations".

This business grew and became a staple serving the alteration needs of many people in the Jackson Metro area for more than thirty years.

She served her local church by playing a vital role as Usher at Mt. Helm Baptist Church in Jackson, Mississippi under the leadership of Pastor C. J. Rhodes. Too, she loved her Bible Study Class, The Ollie Love Bible Class. A short time before her expiration, she received an honorable recognition award from the members of her class.

She leaves to cherish her memories: brothers Lester Taylor, Robert (Geraldine) Taylor, Wilson, (Dr. Linda) Taylor and James Holmes; one step daughter, Valarie K. Thompson and a nieces, nephews and friends in Christ.
