

Mrs. Mary Trigg Bryant

October 3, 1938 - October 5, 2025

Mrs. Mary Trigg Bryant was born to the late James Harvey Trigg and Idella Johnson Trigg on October 3, 1938, in Rankin County, Mississippi. She attended elementary school in Rankin County and was a graduate of the Carter High School class of 1956. Jackson State University, formerly known as Jackson College, was where she attended college and was the birthplace of her first born. St. James United Methodist Church served as her home church. She later moved her membership to St. Mary Missionary Baptist Church to join her husband Wade Mack Bryant Sr., whom she married on July 17, 1955. Mary worked for Pearl Public Schools, Carter High School and enjoyed working and serving in the church. She was an active supporter of the Civil Rights Movement. Her hobbies included sewing, crocheting and traveling. Mary was generous, nurturing and gave from a pure heart to all that needed her. On October 5, 2025, at home with her family she transitioned into everlasting peace.

She leaves to cherish her memory children; Gwendolyn B. Sutton (Dallas, Cynthia A. Ward, Wade M. Bryant Jr., Felix J. Bryant (Mary), and Hazel Bryant Weatherspoon (Clarence); Grandchildren; Angelica McCoy (Frank), Aveleka Moore (Freddie), Jarvis Bryant, Jarvon Bryant (Josie), Justin Washington, Dallas Sutton Jr., Felexis Bryant, Alise' Bryant, Clarence Weatherspoon Jr. (Lauren), Simone R. Weatherspoon, Felix Jason Bryant II and Bryant Weatherspoon, one goddaughter Mary S. Jones, thirteen great grandchildren and five great-great grandchildren. She also loved her nieces and nephews as if they were her children. Mary was preceded in death by her husband Wade, daughter Dalphine Bryant, and godson David Moss.

“ Mrs. Bryant, was a very sweet lady, I lived across the street from her, and as a teenager I would visit her all the time, to ask her to make me a skirt or dress, and she would every time I would ask her, and I will never ever forget how she made me so happy when she made me a outfit, I would always hug her and say thank you so much. Rest easy Mrs. Bryant and I will always love you.
