

Mr. Michiel Jerome Harris

November 22, 1972 - September 13, 2020

Michiel Jerome Harris known to many as Chin and Mr. Amazing, and so many other names that we won't call, was born November 22, 1972. Michiel was the eldest child of the Jimmy Harris and Jackqueline (Kitchens) Harris in Jackson, Ms. In the early morning hours of Sunday, September 13th at 12:40 A.M., Michiel gave up his fight after a lengthy battle with CHF.

Michiel grew up in Brandon, Ms. And Hartford, Connecticut. He attended Pearl Public School, Earle C. Clements JCC, and Mississippi State University. Many people didn't know that Michiel had degree's Culinary Art's and Horticulture. He also worked as an auto industry entrepreneur with his best friend and cousin Dracy.

Michiel loved the Lord and has been a longtime member Sandhill Missionary Baptist Church. In the darkest times, he kept the faith. Michiel knew he was going home with his Heavenly Father. Michiel was a character. He had a way with words a witty sense of humor. If you ever met him, I promise you that you would not forget him. He turned out to be the life of the party, flashy dresser "Mr. G.Q." A Big Ole Bear, but a Gentle Giant. Michiel had the biggest heart and the kindest person you could ever meet. His children and grandchildren were his life.

Michiel is survived by his mother Jackqueline (Kitchens) Harris, his sister Kimberly Cooper, brother Alex (Alice) Harris, children Doroyane Locke, Brittani Sibley, and Rory Lake; 4 grandchildren Kamori Stokes, Kelvin Henderson, Damnoni Ledbetter, and Bailei Yokem. Neice De'Lexus Harris.

Special friend Laquakia Robinson (Baby Mama) and Sandra Davis, former wife and caretaker at the time of his death; Saroya Crowell-Harris, and a host family, friends, and associates. Michiel is preceded by his father Jimmy Harris.
