

Ms. Mildred Smith

February 24, 1944 - May 22, 2021

Mildred Smith was born on February 24, 1944 in Brandon, MS to the union of Esau and Minnie Adams. She was one of five children. She departed this life on Saturday, May 22, 2021 at Baptist Hospital in Jackson, MS.

Mildred's walk with God started at a young age when she was Baptized at Fannin Missionary Baptist Church. Later she united with True Vine Baptist Church, where she was a faithful servant of God, praying and ministering to everyone she met.

Mildred graduated from Carter High School in Brandon, MS. She was employed at Merit Health Woman's Hospital in Flowood, MS for 30 years. She later worked at Hope Learning Center in Flowood, MS for 13 years, before her health began to decline.

Mildred was the loving mother of three children, and she was also the devoted grandmother of four grandsons.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Esau and Minnie Adams, her son, Stacey Smith, and sister, Mary Louise Bilbro.

She leaves to cherish her memory, two children, Jimmy (Michelle) Adams and Sharetta Smith of Brandon, MS; four grandsons, Jimmy Adams, Jr. of Byram,

MS, John (Lakeshia) Adams of Clinton, MS, Marshall (Jamonica) Moore of Fortson, GA, and Stacey Drain of Jackson, MS; three brothers, Lawrence (Earnestine) Adams, L. E. Adams, and Esau, Jr. (Sarah) Adams of Brandon, MS; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
