

Ms. Naya Marlene Jackson

August 21, 2003 - December 25, 2021

To Everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A Time to be born, and a time to die. Ecclesiastes 3:1-2a (KJV)

Naya Marlane Jackson was born on August 21, 2003 to Chandra Jackson and Frankie L. Davis in Magee, MS. at the Magee General Hospital.

Naya grew up in the Fannin Community and later moved to Atlanta, Georgia where she attended school. She later moved back to Pelahatchie, MS with her Grandmother Marilyn, to assist her with daily living. Naya continued her education via homeschool. She loved to sing, dance, and spend time with her family. Naya's favored colors were cotton candy blue and pink.

While untimely for family and friends but in God's complete plan; Naya received her heavenly call on Christmas day, December 25, 2021 in Canton, MS.

She leaves to cherish her memories: her grandmother, Marilyn Jackson of Pelahatchie, MS; her mother, Chandra (Natalie) Jackson of Atlanta, Georgia; her father, Frankie L. Davis (Cynthia Brantley) of Lake, MS. Step siblings: Nate Welch, Jacoury Welch, Elijah Welch and Carsierra Russell of Atlanta, Georgia; and a host of a uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends.
