

Mrs. Norma Ree Kitchens-Stubbs

July 2, 1938 - October 30, 2022

Norma was born on July 2, 1938 to the late O.J. and Bertha Kitchens.

She grew up in Florence Mississippi and attended New Hope High School. She was a member of Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church.

She was employed at the Mississippi State Hospital. She also worked as a private caregiver part time. In 1961 she met and married Billy Stubbs and she later moved the family to Illinois and became a homemaker. It brought her great Joy and pleasure to be around children. She would often babysit her grandchildren which made her day. Norma was a loving, caring and nurturing caregiver to all who knew her. She also enjoyed cooking very much. To most she was the best cook around.

Norma is preceded in death by her parents: O.J. and Bertha Kitchens; her husband Billy; daughter Twanner; one granddaughter Winter; three great grandchildren Roger, Nakiyah, Omari; seven siblings T.J. Kitchens, Gladys Leonard, Christella Berry, Will Kitchens, Jimmy Kitchens, Agnes Clark and Pauline (Polly) Harper and one brother in law, Eddie Harper.

She leaves to cherish her memories: thirteen children, Gwendolyn, Barbara, Owen, Theresa (Paul), Benitha (Floyd), Jeannie (Albert), Billy, Tammy, Sharon (Thomas), Randle, Christelar, Antonio, Constance (Dewan); thirty five grandchildren; forty two great grandchildren; five brothers and sisters, Genola Larry, George W. Jones, Catherine Kitchens, Roy Kitchens, Ruby Thompson, three sisters in law, Earlene Kitchens, Sandra Kitchens, Doretha Kitchens and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
