

Ontario Jamiri Gates

May 4, 1995 - January 29, 2026

Ontario Jamiri Gates was born to Debra Gates on May 5, 1995, at the University of MS Medical Center in Jackon, MS. He was preceded in death by his cousins, Nako Gardener, James Gates, and Michael Smith, his great grandmother Jannie V. Stapleton, his great grandfather, Roy Gates, his aunt Bernice Roby and his best friend Sylvester Houston.

- A Time To Live -

Ontario was a young man of many nicknames such as Cookie, Tootie, Shugg, Big Man and he was everyone's big baby. He obtained his education at the School for the Blind in Jackson, MS and Pearl Public School District. He accepted Christ at an early age. He loved the Lord. He lived a life like no other. Ontario was the boss of everything but never wanted for anything. Whatever he wanted, he got it! He was fascinated with VCR's and floor model televisions. His favorite music to listen to was gospel. His favorite artists was Dottie Peoples, The William Brothers and Harvey Watkins. His favorite thing to watch on tv was Tyler Perry plays. Ontario was autistic. He experienced the world with a unique perspective, teaching others to slow down, listen and love intentionally. Ontario's smile was radiant, his heart pure, and his presence unforgettable. He embraced life in his own extraordinary way, reminding everyone around him that being different is not less—it is a gift. His strength, resilience, and loving nature touched family, friends, and all who had the blessing of knowing him.

- A time to remember -

Ontario leaves to cherish his wonderful memories: his parents Tony and Debra Bailey, his grandparents, Willie and Gwen Holmes, with whom he lived with as they were vital in raising him and Evon and Derry Stapleton. A great grandmother, Minnie Gates who assisted with his daily care and activities. Five Brothers, Deandre Tate, Jordan Bailey, Emahni(Hank) Whigham, Jaylen Bailey and Jagger Bailey. Two aunts, Chaprice Holmes and Lashundra Stapleton (Tremayne). Three uncles Derrick Stapleton, Bryce Stapleton (Henrietta, Daniel Collier (Victoria) and a host of family and friends.
