

Mrs. Pearl Lean Rabon

December 7, 1949 - December 1, 2022

Pearl Lean Bilbro Rabon was born December 7, 1949 in Morton, Mississippi. She was the first of eight (8) children born to the late Vanzo Buckner, who preceded her in death. Also her stepfather James Dallas Buckner, Sr. preceded her in death.

She departed this life December 1, 2022 at home, Morton, Mississippi at 12:50 PM.

Pearl Lean grew up in Morton, Mississippi (Branch Community). At an early age, she gave her life to Christ and joined Pleasant Gift Missionary Baptist Church of Morton, Mississippi and later in her life joined Deliverance and Healing Ministries Church in Canton, Mississippi under the leadership of Apostle Georgia Drane.

Pearl Lean worked many years a licensed practical nurse. After becoming ill, she continued to work volunteering her service and time to take care others. God blessed and graced her with a heart of gold for her family, friends, and others she did not know. She took people in and cared for them as she would her own children and family.

Pearl Lean was preceded in death by her daughter Brenda Rabon, mother Vanzo Buckner, step father James Dallas Buckner, Sr., sister Lorean Bilbro, brother James Dallas Buckner, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her fond memories: her children, Betty Lockett of Walnut Grove, Mississippi, Quincy (Angela) Rabon of Morton, Mississippi, Jean Rabon of Warner Robins, Georgia, Beverly (Charles) Sherman of Florence, Mississippi, Joseph Rabon of Canton, Mississippi; steps sons, Marshall Lloyd of Morton, Mississippi, Perry Purvis and Willie Purvis of Brandon, Mississippi, goddaughter Stacy Carter of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, sixteen (16) grandchildren, twenty-two (22) great grand children, four (4) sisters, one (1) brother and other relatives aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins.
