

Ms. Peggie Jo Taylor

August 13, 1953 - February 11, 2024

Ms. Peggie Jo Taylor was born on August 13, 1953 to Lemmie and Charlene Taylor. She was the third child of eight children. Both of her parents and one niece Kesha Taylor, preceded her in death.

Peggie grew up in Rankin County, Mississippi and attended school at Carter High School. She continued her education at Jackson State University and received a Bachelor's degree in Accounting. After graduation, Peggy began her career as a certified accountant at the Mississippi Library Commission. She retired there after twenty-five years.

Peggie was a born again believer in Jesus Christ. She was an active member of Pleasant Grove M.B. Church for numerous years. She served as a Sunday School Teacher, Choir Member, and Financial Secretary.

Peggie had no children of her own, however, she loved, nurtured and supported all of her nieces and nephews as if they were her own. Her phone calls and prayers will greatly be missed.

Peggie leaves to cherish her memory: four sisters, Carolyn Sparkman, Darlene Shoto, Debbie Flora and Shelia (Felix) Nance; three brothers, Claude Booker, Lemmie Taylor, Jr. and Gary (Carol) Taylor; a special nephew, Chris Shoto and a host of nieces and nephews whom she love dearly.

“ Losing a loved one is never easy, and when that loved one is an influential and cherished aunt, the pain can be insurmountable. An aunt who often played various roles in your niece's and nephew's life— a maternal figure, a confidante, a prayer partner, a friend, and sometimes, even a mentor. Aunt Peggie you will always be remembered.
