

Mr. Phillip Amarion Laster, Jr

November 7, 2004 - August 1, 2022

Phillip Amarion Laster, Jr., was born on November 7, 2004 to Mr. Phillip and Ashanta Laster. He was the only son to this union along with three sisters: Ambria (20), Anaya (13) and Asia (6). He also enjoyed four older sisters: Courtney Ragland, Chastity Laster, Alexandra Williams, Keyontay Moore; and three older brothers: Cornelious Williams, Phillip E. Laster, Jr., and Marquavis Laster. Phillip accepted Christ as his personal savior at the St. Paul Church of God in Christ, where he was raised and developed as a fine young man and leader amongst his peers. Phillip was a senior at Brandon High School this year, he was super excited to be exercising his passion as part of the Brandon Bulldog Football team.

Phillip was a very kind hearted, gentle and humble spirit. He was loved by everyone that encountered his sweet, positive energy. He loved to play his Play Station, swimming and simply hanging out with his loving friends. Phillip was a natural leader whom often rubbed off the great life lessons he embraced on the people he loved. He was very no nonsense when it came to his beliefs in what was right, and always showed up as a good example to his friends. He was a wonderful Son and an absolute pleasure to have known and will be greatly missed by many,

“ To my beautiful Soror and family. May the peace of God that surpasses all understanding guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus through these unsettling times. For we know, that we don't grieve as others do as if we don't have any hope. But with the knowledge of who Jesus was and is we believe God will raise those up who has fallen asleep in him on that great day. May God bless and keep you. Jacqueline Johnson
