

Mr. Ralph Davis

December 30, 1938 - May 6, 2025

Family and Friends, we gather today to honor and celebrate the life of Ralph Davis. Born December 30, 1938, in Jackson, Mississippi to the late Mr. Jim Davis and the late Mary Ford Davis.

Ralph's journey of learning began at Jim Hill High School and continued at Tougaloo College. His dedication to service led him to enlist in the Army, where he honorably served for two years. Following his military service, Ralph made New York City his home, where he devoted over three decades as a social worker, touching countless lives through his compassion and commitment.

Ralph was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. Jim Davis (father) and Mary Ford (mother); his stepfather, Ed Jenkins; his sister, Mabel Lucille Turner; and his niece, Danielle Turner.

He leaves behind a loving family who will cherish his memory: his brother Jim Davis (California); Stasia Ard (Dallas, TX/Pearl, MS); Kindra Turner (Texas); Dias Turner (Lynne), Texas; James Davis (Idaho); and Warren Davis (California).

I remember Mr. Ralph when I was a child coming here every summer to visit his mom and Stacy. He was a joy to know. He always brought us ice cream. Sending my sincere condolences to you Stacy, Mr. Jim and family.
