

Mr. Robert Lee Wash

April 19, 1957 - October 15, 2018

Robert Lee Wash, affectionately known as "Piggy", was born April 19, 1957 to the late Arthur and Sarah Wash in Brandon, Mississippi. On Monday, October 15, 2018, God final call and it was Robert's time to answer in Greenwood, Mississippi. He was preceded in death by one (1) brother Earnest Caston, two sisters, Gloria Spann and Frances Harris and a step daughter, Kinya Lakisha Simmons. Robert accepted Christ at an early age and continued to acknowledge Him as his personal savior. As a young lad growing up in the Westland Heights Community of Brandon, Mississippi, he developed a love for basketball. He was privileged to play at Brandon (Carter High School in Rankin County, Mississippi and also at Jackson State University in Jackson, Mississippi. The sport gained him an enormous amount of notoriety in his community as well as the state. He became gainfully employed with the Mississippi Highway Patrol after his college years. He leaves to cherish his memory, three (3) daughters Lakisha Kelly of Jackson, Mississippi, Tamoria (Karrell) Harvey Brown of Brandon, Mississippi and Andrea Wash of California; three (3) grandchildren, Gage Green, Amaya X. Johnson and Kamora Harvey Brown; four (4) sisters, Betty Crain of Brandon, Mississippi, Katy (J. B.) Eubanks of Jackson, Mississippi, Geraldine Spann of Pearl, Mississippi and Lillie Holloway of Brandon, Mississippi; two (2) brothers, Greg (Katie Lewis) Wash of Brandon, Mississippi and Arthur (Rose) Wash of St. Charles, Missouri.

Robert also leaves to mourn a special friend, Vivian Wash; her daughter, Keyon Simmons Wesley and granddaughters Karter and Hannah Wesley of Greenwood, Mississippi.
