He attended as well as graduated from Hinds Community College. He joined True Vine M. B. Church at an early age. Shun has always been a businessman, working for other companies such as RTO, Rent City, National Cash Advance and Advance America. However, his dream was so much bigger because he has a desire was to start his own business. His life long goal was to leave a legacy for his family.

You could find him most Sundays at the track in Byram, Hub City or on Beasley not as a spectator but as a avid competitor. "Crusin the Coast" was also an event he looked forward to.

Roshun loved being a father to his only daughter, Arrlington Jay Palmer or "Pumpkin" as he called her. She is who he lived for. She was the apple of his eye, the only one who could break his resolve. His main objective was teach her to be a strong, consistent, grounded young lady and to embrace life, the good as well as the bad. As much as possible he, prepared her for this day.
