

Deacon Roy Andra Green

October 29, 1962 - February 9, 2025

"A TIME TO BE BORN" - Roy Andra Green was born on October 29, 1962 in the Capital City of Jackson, Mississippi to Velma Lee Green.

"A TIME TO SOW" - Roy accepted Christ at an early age, and worshipped in the United Methodist Church. He resided in Jackson, Mississippi before relocating to Brandon, Mississippi. He later met Twanda Walker, his future wife of Brandon, Mississippi. Roy was a God-fearing, humble man of few words but full of wisdom. After joining Pilgrim Rest M.B. Church under the leadership of Dr. Ava S. Harvey, Sr., his distinct and upright character shifted him into the role of Trustee and Deacon. His other duties performed but were not limited to, general maintenance of the church's heating and cooling system.

"A TIME TO BUILD" - After graduating from Pearl High School, He was not afraid of work but on the contrary, Roy believed in work to provide for his family. His job for over 40 years was at Rankin Medical Center, currently referred to as Merit Health Rankin as a Maintenance Technician. Often, he would answer the call for help of community citizens who needed his expertise as a maintenance technician at their home.

"A TIME TO LOVE" - He was united in holy matrimony to Twanda Walker and this union catapulted into a beautiful blended family, Courtney, Cory, Travis, Keyanna and Ma Joy.

"A TIME TO REAP" - He enjoyed hunting, spending quality time with family and watching sports. Also, he loved attending Bible Study, Sunday School and Worship Service.

"A TIME OF PEACE" - On February 9, 2025, angels descended from Heaven to carry Deacon Roy Green home to be with the Lord. Here he joined parents, friends and family members such as his late brother in law, Darryl Walker and grandson, Chance Walker in glory.

"A TIME TO DIE" - Deacon Roy Green leaves to cherish his memories and continue his legacy: His devoted wife, Twanda; three daughters, Courtney Green, Keyanna Austin and Ma'Joy Easterling; two sons, Cory (Jessica) Holliman and Travis (LaKeisha) Walker; nine (9) grand children; three (3) sisters, Pamela A. Shanell, Deborah A. Pierre and Carolyn L. Shavers; one (1) brother, Joe Burrell Lewis, Jr.; two (2) sisters-in-law: Beverly Walker and LaShanda Walker; mother-in-law, Ruby J. Walker; father-in-law, John H. Walker and he also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who were near and dear to his heart.

“ Hearing of your passing is truly heartbreaking Mr. Green, you were a remarkable and genuine man. During my time at Rankin Medical Center, you stood out as one of the greatest people I had the privilege of knowing.

When I see Mrs. Green without you, I always make sure to ask about you and tell her to make sure she tell you.

You will be missed, and your memory will always be cherished.

Take your rest Mr. GREEN

Carolyn Adams , Roy hearing of your passing Filled my heart with sorrow. You will forever be missed from Sunday dinner at John's house. You was a very special person in my heart. You were so polite and such a good man. I know my niece Tawanda will miss you and do will we all. I just cannot believe that you are no longer here with us. We miss you and hope to see you on the other side. RIP brother.

Even as a teenager, Roy was a man. He was good, he minded his own business, and he was so very respectful! I had the pleasure to really get to know him when I served as the statistician for the boys' basketball team our senior year. His character never wavered. My heart broke when I learned that Roy had stolen away to Jesus. Take your rest, my friend. You have left precious memories until we meet again. Our prayers and condolences to your wife, family, and all who loved and respected you.
