

Mr. Samuel Lee Roberts

May 6, 1952 - November 14, 2022

A Time to Be Born...

Mr. Samuel Lee Roberts was born May 6, 1952, in Mendenhall, Mississippi, to Bennie James Roberts, Sr. and Beatrice Mangum Roberts. His parents and siblings, Jessie Pearl May, Jerome Gray and Nathaniel Roberts preceded him in death.

A Time to Build...

Samuel Roberts affectionately known as "Sammy Lee" graduated from Mendenhall High School in 1972. Sammy Lee continued his education at Alcorn State University. Sammy Lee was employed with the Mississippi State Hospital as a campus police officer, Pelahatchie High School and Thee Jackson State University until his health issues occurred.

In Sam's leisure time, his hobbies included watching westerns (he loved John Wayne old movies) and listening to music. Sam was an avid gardener and artist. Sam's artwork was often displayed at Serendipity Art Shows at Mississippi State Hospital. Time and time again, his paintings were purchased by onlookers. Something to remember about Sam, Sammy Lee or Mr. Samuel Lee Roberts = although paralyzed on his left side, he was very self-sufficient in most cases. He made his own bed; you could bounce a coin off it. Also, he loved his family.

A Time to Cherish..

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving daughters, Valeria Roberts of Las Vegas, Nevada and Betty Roberts of Brandon, Mississippi; his four grandchildren, Davyeon AKeela, Mariah and Tyquon; his three brothers, Reverend James Hodge Sr. of D'Lo, Mississippi, Bennie (Vivian) Roberts of Morton, Mississippi and James (Glenda) Roberts of Florence, Mississippi; and a host of nieces, cousins and friends.
