

Mr. Samuel Jerome Tolible, Jr.

June 12, 1961 - February 14, 2024

Samuel Jerome Tolible, Jr. , Was born on June 12, 1961, to Samuel Tolible, Sr. and Omega Arlee Tolible in Jackson, Mississippi. He transitioned to his eternal home on Wednesday, February 14, 2024, at Merit Health-River Oaks Hospital in Flowood, Mississippi.

Sam was educated in the Rankin County School District and was a 1979 graduate of Brandon High College. As a youth and young adult, he was Tougler member of Pine Valley M.B. Church. He later united with Mt. Elam M.B. Church. At Mt. Elam, he served as an usher and was a member of the male choir. He was also a Mason.

Sam was a quiet and soft-spoken person. He enjoyed spending time with his family and was easy to get along with. He was industrious and always kept a job. He enjoyed working. His employment included the Oakley Youth Development Center, the Mississippi Department of Corrections, and the Rankin County Sheriff Department.

Sam was preceded in death by his parents; and two sisters, Katherine Virginia Tolible and Annie Sue Tolible-Carr.

Sam leaves to cherish his memory and legacy: his wife, Jacqueline M. Tolible of Pearl, Mississippi; his daughters, Lakisha Agee and Candace Tolible (Jay), both of Brandon, Mississippi; his five grandchildren, Shania King, Jaylen Powell, Kishawn King, Jada Powell and Keylin King; his siblings, Annie MeLin, Tonnette Harris (Eddie), James Tolible (April), and Jacqueline Toblible; his father and mother-in-law, Javous and Mary McGhee;

“ My condolences to the family and friends of Samuel Tolible. My prayer is God comfort you all during this difficult time. I want to thank Sam for his dedicated service to the citizens of Rankin County and the State of Mississippi. He served with the MDOC where I had the pleasure of meeting and later with Rankin SO. I'm sure his presence will be missed. Rest my friend, we have the watch from here.
