

Mr. Sean Anthony Enochs

February 16, 1975 - November 27, 2023

Sean Anthony Enochs was born February 16, 1975, to the late Excell Enochs, Jr. and Effie Terrell Enochs McLaurin at University Hospital, Jackson, MS. He is preceded in death by his father, Excell Enochs, Jr., stepfather, L D McLaurin and sister, Spanja Ann Jenkins.

Sean started school at an early age attending Willow Wood Development School in Jackson, MS. There he learned grammar, how to write, how to swim and even participated in special Olympics. Sean later went on and attended Pearl High School where he received his Certificate of Completion. After High School, Sean started working for Region 8 Mental Health Services. Sean always had a warm spirit and always wore the biggest smile.

Due to health reasons, Sean could not physically attend church but he was taken in as a member at Sweet Rest Church in Pearl, MS. The church family would come to the house, pray with him, bring him communion and was always so supportive as Sean faced so many health issues.

On November 27, 2023, Sean was called home to take his eternal rest. A true angel on earth and now in heaven. He is survived by a loving and devoted mother Effie McLaurin; Sisters: Melissa Moore, Spanja McLaurin and Sandra Oscar (Leroy). Brothers: Bernard McLaurin (Mamie) and Larry McLaurin; a niece, Erica Stapleton Williams and nephew, Desmond Stapleton; aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ I remember Sean as a little boy running around at full speed. He went to special olympics when he was younger. He could put together a 1,000 piece puzzle. Who has patience for that? I'm glad you now at peace little brother ❤️❤️
