

Ms. Shanita M. Wilson

December 30, 1976 - November 16, 2025

Shanita was born and raised in Flowood, Mississippi. She was the only child of Annette Wilson who preceded her in death and Vernon Evans. She was introduced to Christ at an early age and was baptized at Greer Chapel United Methodist Church on the Fannin Road, just up the street from the Wilson home and often attended Sweetwater M.B. Church with her mom.

Shanita attended Pearl City Schools as well as Northwest Rankin. If you knew Shanita then you know she enjoyed the fresh scent of outdoors, spending quality time with her kids and grandkids, and finding her entertainment by engaging with her closest entourage. There is nothing that she would not do for her children and grandchildren. One of her goals was to make sure all her kids graduated from high school. That goal was accomplished when Scoop, her youngest son, walked across the stage on May 13* of this year. No matter how sick she was, or how her body ached, if the kids needed something, she would get up and find a way to get it.

Although she was an only child, Shamita created her own brothers and sisters through lifelong friendships. Shanita was a loving and beautiful young woman who was genuinely selfless. She made everyone she came in contact with smile, especially her children and grandchildren. She leaves to mourn her passing five sons-Kenny "Pooh" Travis (Jamaica Chapman), Kendrick "Kenken" Travis, Antonio "Manman" Washington, Lorenzo "Renzo"

Washington, and Alonzo "Scoop" Washington; three daughters- Kenisha "Nisha" Travis, A'Kendra "Anna" Travis, Dyunna "DeeDee" Brown; and five grandchildren-Amina "Bean" Brown, Ava Brown, Josiah Steele, Jeremiah Steele, and Earon Jones. Her grandfather, Leroy "Pawpaw" Wilson, and two uncles Michael Wilson and James "Uncle Busta" Scott and her TT Winifred. In addition, mourning the untimely passing of Shanita is a large family of aunts, uncles, and numerous cousins, and friends.
