

Mrs. Shelly Deann Thornburg

December 8, 1967 - January 26, 2024

Shelly is mourned by her husband of 22 years, Michael Thornburg; four children, Jeramii Martin, Jarvia Klipka, and Janine and Justin Thornburg; two brothers, John and Jeffrey Klipka; and seven nieces and nephews, as well as many other family members and friends. She is predeceased by her brother, Jim Klipka; her father, James Klipka; and her mother, Ursel Klipka (née McMurtry).

Shelly grew up in the Denver, CO area, and attended Sheridan High School. After graduating in 1986, she attended Barnes Community College. In addition to being a mom to four children whom she loved, Shelly had several careers, including in mortgages for Vectra Bank, in accounting for Men's Warehouse, and eventually in 401k disbursements for Dyatech. Shelly enjoyed several years between careers as a stay-at-home mom - her children were always her top priority.

Shelly had a special place in her heart for giant breed dogs. While living in Colorado, she and her family fostered St. Bernards for the Colorado Saint Bernard Rescue, in addition to adopting two of their own.

Shelly and her family moved from Denver to Houston, and eventually to Brandon, MS, where Shelly loved the warm weather and cared for her garden. She was a great lover of Christmas decorations, and she and her husband went all-out each year to decorate their house, bringing holiday cheer to their entire neighborhood.

In 2017, Shelly was diagnosed with Stage 2 breast cancer. Over the course of the following year she went through chemotherapy, surgery, and radiation with the support of her husband, and of her mother-in-law, Judi Carey, who helped to care for Shelly while she recovered from surgery. She was declared 'in remission' in 2018 and was officially a breast cancer survivor.

An avid knitter, Shelly gifted many friends and family members with baby blankets or afghans knitted by hand. All of her blankets were given as gifts - she refused to be paid for anything that she made for anyone.

Shelly was a wonderful mom and wife, a great friend, and will be missed by everyone who knew her.
