

Ms. TeKelia Lashunda Spann

August 12, 1985 - December 9, 2021

Tekelia Lashunda Spann was born August 12, 1985, in Jackson, Mississippi. She was the second child born to Geraldine Spann. Her father Eddie Nelson preceded her in death.

On Thursday, December 9, 2021 while hospitalized, Tekelia transitioned peacefully. She is forever in our hearts and with the Lord.

Tekelia accepted Christ in her life at an early age. She was a member of Rock Star Missionary Baptist Church under Reverend Bennie Ervin where she served as a choir member. Tekelia attended Stevens Elementary, Brandon Elementary, Brandon Middle School, and Brandon High School where she graduated with the Class of 2003. While at Brandon High School Tekelia was on the Honor Roll, served in JROTC, and was a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Tekelia later attended college at Hinds Community College before going into the workforce.

On May 5, 2009, Tekelia gave birth to her handsome son Aeden Ri-chard Spann whom she loved more than the whole world. Her love and affection for Aeden can be seen and heard by anyone who knew her. Every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday was family night for Tekelia, Aeden, and her mother Dina. They would watch wrestling "WWE and AEW," eat seafood, sushi, and popcorn. The love for family was what she cherished the most; her mother, brother, cousins, aunts, uncles, as well as her friends, classmates, and co-workers especially those at Walmart in Flowood, Mississippi.

Tekelia's infectious smile and laugh lit up the room when she entered and was unforgettable. Tekelia touched every life she encountered. Her daughter, Legacy Lashunda Spann preceded her in eternal rest on November 2, 2021. Tekelia leaves to cherish her loving mother, Geraldine (Dina) Spann; her loving son Aeden Ri-chard Spann, her handsome and caring brother Glenn (Ken) Wash and Sister in Love, Danielle Wash, and a host of beloved aunts, uncles, cousins (Special cousin; Kaye Harmon, and Very Special cousins: Kimberly Blasingame and Sherry Holloway), and friends (Best Friend Sharon Faye Mosley) who will cherish her life and memories forever.
