

Ms. Thelma Jewel Evans

December 21, 1952 - January 27, 2026

Thelma Jewel Taylor Evans was born on December 21, 1952, to the late R. L. Taylor and Thelma Turnage Taylor. A woman of faith, Thelma was baptized at Mount Helm Missionary Baptist Church, where she also faithfully served as an usher, welcoming all with warmth, humility, and grace.

She received her early education at Goshen-Fannin Elementary School and later attended Pisgan High School. Following her schooling, Thelma dedicated herself to a career of service in healthcare, working in the Radiology Department at Rankin Medical Center for twenty-five years. Her commitment, professionalism, and compassion left a lasting impression on her colleagues and the many patients she served.

Thelma was preceded in death by her parents and one sister, Velma Ree Linosey and one grandson, Zailen Evans.

She leaves to cherish her memory two loving children, Sharron Evans and Malcolm Evans, both of Brandon, Mississippi; two grandchildren, Samara Booker and Zaydrien Evans of Brandon, Mississippi; four great-grandchildren, Jonah, Cheyenne, Simon, and Jo Leena; one brother, Roy (Luretha) Taylor of Gary, Indiana; and three sisters, Joyce Jennings, Ira (Eddie Watson) of Brandon, Mississippi, and Bessie Peterson of Pearl, Mississippi. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and dear friends who will continue to honor her life and legacy.

Thelma Jewel Taylor Evans will be remembered for her unwavering faith, her dedication to service, and her deep love for family. Her life was a testament to quiet strength, devotion, and grace, and her memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.
