He was preceded in death by his beloved parents, Hughmann and Rosie Mayes; his loving wife, Maggie Ree Quick Mayes; his cherished daughter, Daisy Quick Brown; and eleven siblings: Alice Mayes, Mary Williams, Ted Mayes, James Mayes, Albert Mayes, Luther Mayes, Willie Mayes, Amos Mayes, Eddie Mayes, J.W. Mayes, and Fannie Mae Mayes.

Thomas leaves behind cherished memories for his children: Jessie (Wilma) Quick, James (Sandra Faye) Quick, both of Florence, MS; Jacqueline Mayes, Laura (Delon) Dillon both of Richland, MS; Aundrey (Courtney) Myers of Kansas City, KS; and Tony (Natalie) Mayes of Byram, MS. He is also survived by one brother, Charlie Mayes, and one sister, Idonia Owens, both of Florence, MS.

He is fondly remembered by two sons-in-law, Ree Brown, Florence, MS and Delon Dillon, of Richland, MS, and several daughters-in-law: Wilma, Sandra Faye, Courtney, and Natalie. Thomas also leaves behind a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren, along with many nieces, nephews, extended family members, church family, and lifelong friends.

Thomas Lee Mayes will be remembered for his kind heart, strong faith, musical talent, working on cars, gardening, and the deep love he had for his family. His legacy lives on in all who knew and loved him.

“ 1 Thess. 4:13-18. "But we do not want you to be uninformed, brethren, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve, as do the rest who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep in Jesus. For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, and remain until the coming of the Lord, shall not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words."
