“ I want you and your family to know how much I always enjoyed seeing your smiling face in intake at Southwest, aka Cois Byrd. You always greeted me with, "Hey Cousin!" (He thought we were cousins from another mother...LOL.) I would have loved to have had CD II Jenkins as a blood cousin. He was good people and I sincerely miss him. Thank you for your service in the Marine Corps. and with RSO. RIP CSO II Jenkins N3855

“ Mr. Jenkins,

I have a plethora of meaningful memories with you Sir. I can remember our first conversation in E pod many years ago. I remember you jamming to your music, standing up looking at the day-rooms. Cool, calm and collected with your hands in your pockets. I remember us sharing stories and laughing about our times in the Marine Corps...that was the start to a great friendship!

With time, I quickly discovered that you were a God fearing man with a passion of mentoring others, compassionate towards those hurting, and the deep love and devotion you had in loving and caring for your Mother-“your diamond” as you often referred to her.

I will sure miss our conversations about various topics and your contagious laughter. I will carry on with the plans you assisted me in developing, your guidance and advice will not go to waste Sir...this good-bye is only temporarily, until then you will be deeply missed by everyone who loves you. Good night Sir and I will see you again one morning.

My sincere condolences to the entire Jenkins family.

“ I worked with Bro J in law enforcement for many years. He was one brotha you could depend on no matter what. He always treated everyone with respect (including inmates) He had the respect of everyone (including inmates) that's how respected he was. We worked side by side and I only seen him get mad twice but once it was settled bro J still gave you respect. He loved his cocoa butter lotion (which I borrowed a lot) we were never ashy at work because of bro J. His nickname was (Samuel Jackson) that's who he resembled. Listen I am a faith based man and I know the good lord doesn't make mistakes! But this one is hard for me I still am struggling with it all! So bro J I love you good brotha! You have received your heavenly wings so you can rest easy my man!!! Please give my family in heaven a big hug and kiss!!!

“ I met Dep. Jenkins 5 years ago when I first started working at the jail. He quickly became the older brother I never had. He was my guardian angel in the flesh. Oh boy, we bickered everyday we worked together, however we had nothing but respect for each other. Dep. Jenkins was always kind to people. I learned soo much from him in the short time I've known him. His passing truly leaves a void in my heart. Saying he will be missed is an understatement. Rest in Heaven big brother, until we meet again 🙏.
