

Ms. Vanesa Alexander

December 5, 1963 - November 28, 2022

Vanesa Alexander, affectionately known as "Poolie" was born December 5, 1963 to Lula Mae Alexander and Bill Clark. She was one of five children born to Lula Mae. Poolie accepted Christ at an early age. She was a member of Oak Grove Baptist Church until her death on Monday, November 28, 2022.

Poolie Was educated in Pearl Public Schools and was raised in the Pearl community.

Poolie was a loving mother, sister, aunt and friend. She gave birth to three children, Tory "Boo Boo" Vantory "Apple" and LaMarcus "Fatty" Alexander. Poolie also played a significant role in the lives of her two great nieces, Tytanna Dear and Sasha Snell.

Poolie was faced with many obstacles in her life which she used to encourage others in her own way.

She was diagnosed with breast cancer in 2019 and underwent treatments to become a survivor and advocate for Breast Cancer Awareness.

Poolie was adored by family and friends and was a blessing to anyone she encountered. Her witty personality and "No Nonsense" ways were just a few of the things that made her special to everyone.

She brought laughter, jokes and a cheerful unique atmosphere whenever she was around. She truly defined the phrase "The Life of the Party!" Throughout her life, Poolie was a caregiver, community connector, and encouraged a daily display of living life to the fullest!

Poolie had a phrase that had MANY meanings, you'd just have to listen to the tone. "OH MY!" could mean just about anything, but if you know Poolie, you'd definitely KNOW. One thing that's certain, you never EVER had to wonder what was on her mind. This is one of many things that made her a legendary figure in the community.

Poolie was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters, Rose Marie Hobson and Tracy Williams, a niece, Latasha Dear and nephew Leroy Hobson, Jr.

Poolie leaves to cherish her everlasting memories, a daughter, Vantory Alexander, two sons, Tory Alexander (Raymonda Delaware) and LaMarcus Alexander (Tasha Crain); grandchildren, Isaiah, Isadore, Isabella, Lamarcus, Jr., , and Kaycen Alexander and Montrel Bacon; sisters, Rosemary Stamps-Johnson (Robert), Barbara Deat, Mary Manuel and Willena Smith; nieces, Tiara, Lerosa, Kepora(Erica), Chandra, Nicole, Annie, Raytifah, and Angela and nephews, William and Andra and Brother-in-law, Gregory Levon Williams.

Poolie had countless friends and family who were always eager to be in her presence. Several of her special friends and relatives who shared this mutual love and affection are her cousin, Sam Brown, Sr. and close friends, Tonya Bacon and Verddie Myers & Marsha McCloud. They were all "One Call Away" in times of need - the definition of friendship and love.

Vanesa "Poolie" Alexander will be missed and her memories will live on in the hearts & minds of dear friends, family and loved ones forever.
