

Mrs. Versie B. Kitchens

March 7, 1944 - December 10, 2021

Versie B. Wash Kitchens was born on March 7, 1944, in Oakland, Tennessee, to the late Chester Wiley and Versie Mae Wash. On December 10, 2021, she departed her life peacefully at Baptist Memorial Hospital, Jackson, Mississippi.

She attended Fayette County Training School in Somerville, Tennessee. After graduating, she relocated to Patterson, New Jersey, where she met and married her husband James Kitchens on April 20, 1966.

She joined Saint Luke Baptist Church, serving faithfully on the nursing unit. She worked as a health care aid until retirement. Once retired, James and Versie moved to Florence, Mississippi.

She joined Good Hope Missionary Baptist Church where she became a greeter. Versie enjoyed attending church services and meeting people. One of her blessings was that she had a green thumb for growing plants in her home.

One brother, Laymond Cleaves, and both parents preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory, a loving husband, James Kitchens of Florence, Mississippi; one sister, Fannie Wash, Patterson, New Jersey; four brothers, David (Laura) Wiley, St. Louis, Missouri; Chester Wiley, Atlanta, Georgia; Carl Wiley, St. Louis, Missouri; Keith Wiley, Atlanta, Georgia. Two brothers-in-law, Robert (Bobbie) Kitchens and Charles (Wilma) Kitchens, both of Florence, Mississippi; Five sisters-in-law, Macie Mouton, New Castle, Delaware; Marie Morris, Shreveport, Louisiana; Cynthia Catchings, Amityville, New York; Ruby Kitchens Walker, Florence, Mississippi; and Teresa Cleaves, Patterson, New Jersey. She also leaves her favorite nephews Timothy and Terrill Wash, Patterson, New Jersey, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who loved her dearly.
