

Ms. Vonzetta M. Edwards

March 1, 1968 - June 20, 2019

Vonzetta Marie Edwards was born in Chicago, Illinois, on March 1st, 1968 to Mary Edwards and Cleveland Gregory. She was the youngest of four daughters born to Mary.

At an early age, Vonzetta confessed Christ and was baptized into the church by Reverend Thomas Henry of Austin Baptist Church. She grew into maturity in Chicago, Illinois, alongside her family. A graduate of Foreman High School, Vonzetta later attended Wilbur Wright College. She was always eager to learn and meet new challenges.

Vonnie, as she was lovingly called, gave birth to her first daughter, Jennifer Roberts, May 25th, 1990, and her second, and last daughter, Gerri Roberts, February 3rd, 1995. She was a dedicated mother who gave her daughters every chance to succeed. Vonzetta was also fiercely independent and possessed an entrepreneurial spirit. In addition to her work in property management, she initiated many successful businesses.

In the summer of 2012, Vonnie moved to Braxton Mississippi and continued working in property management. Like many close relatives, she joined the fellowship of Rock Hill Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor LaCharles Brister.

She is preceded in death by one of her sisters, Angela Brown, and both her parents. On the morning of June 20th, 2019, Vonzetta was ushered home to her Heavenly Father.

home to her Heavenly Father.

Vonzetta is cherished in memory by her two daughters; two sisters, Debra Malone and Sheila Edwards, of Chicago Illinois; six nieces and six nephews; and a host of great nieces and nephews, cousins and friends.

Rest on Vonnie

We Love You
