

Mr. Welton Wooten, Jr.

July 23, 1950 - August 9, 2025

From an early age, Welton Wooten, Jr. carried a spirited nature paired with a big heart. Born on July 23, 1950, to the late Welton Wooten, Sr. and Pearlee Spann of Brandon, Mississippi, his energy and warmth left a lasting impression on those around him.

Welton grew up in the Langford community surrounded by his family. He spent his life enjoying time with the people he loved and valued the most. On February 11, 1970, Welton, affectionately known as "Jr", was joined in holy matrimony to Betty Jean Wooten. To this union, four children were born. Known for his warm smile, funny conversations, and contagious personality, Welton touched the lives of everyone he encountered, because rest assured... no matter who you were, you laughed a lot and a good time was had!

Welton will be remembered for his deep love of family and for cherishing life's simple joys. He found peace in fishing and happiness in relaxing on his porch sharing laughter and stories, surrounded by family and friends. Most importantly, although later in life, in 2025, Welton made the greatest decision of his life-he gave his life to Christ. And today, though we mourn, we hold to the promise that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

Welton leaves to treasure his memory and carry on his legacy, his four dearly loved children: Karen (Christopher) Hill of Pearl, MS, Welton Wooten..aka Snapper, of Jackson, MS, Shannon Bragg Wooten, and Yolander (Robert) Sellers, both of Brandon, MS; four sisters: Stella King, Joanne (Eugene) Miller, Annie Johnson, all of Brandon, MS, and Lakeive Harris Wooten of Los Angeles, CA; six brothers: Eddie (Cynthia)Wooten of North Carolina, Willie Earl Wooten, Michael (Cynthia) Johnson, Joe Lee Johnson, Jr., all of Brandon, MS, Willie Joe (Loria) Johnson of Jackson, MS, Richard (Tresa) Johnson of Pearl, MS; a sister-in-law, Lisa (Earnest) Wallace; a brother-in-law, Pastor Oliver Lee Williams; a special lady friend that he loved until his death, Ms. Faye Jefferson; and a host of grandchildren, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, relatives and friends who loved him dearly.
