

Mr. Willie Carl Robinson

May 18, 1950 - May 24, 2018

Mr. Willie Carl Robinson was born on May 18, 1950 in Summit, MS to the late Frank and Virginia Robinson and was the third of seven children born to this union.

Willie graduated on May 29, 1969 from Higgins High School in McComb, MS. Shortly after graduating, Willie met the love of his life Ms. Shirley Boone. The two were married in November of 1972. Together in love they raised their three children: Teddy Boone, Kenneth A. Robinson, and Amaris K. Robinson.

Anyone, fortunate enough to know Willie, knew that he was a hard worker. Determined to provide the best possible life for his family, Willie worked at M.P.I. for several years. His skills would later take him to Sack-n-Save, where he served as an overnight Store Manager for over twenty years. Willie's final career move would take his talent and charisma to Walmart where he worked until his retirement.

Frank and Virginia Robinson instilled in their children a love and respect for God. This foundation would lead Willie to accept Christ at an early age. Willie actively served the Lord by instilling Christian values in his home and witnessing to those who came in contact with him. Allowing his work ethic to follow him to church he served as an usher at Jackson Revival Center and would later join Rising Sun M.B. Church where he was a faithful member.

On May 24, 2018, God called his servant Willie home. He was preceded in death by his loving wife of 44 1/2 years Shirley Robinson, his son Teddy Boone, granddaughter Courtney M. Boone and brothers Frank E. Robinson and James E. Robinson.

Willie leaves to cherish his son Kenneth (Ashley) Robinson (Atlanta, GA) and daughter Amaris Robinson (Florence, MS); four grandchildren: Tevin Boone (Richardson, Texas), Shanese Boone, Dejah and Nina Smith (Florence, MS); Three sisters Diane (James) Shoulders, Annie Robinson, and Rose McKinnon; One brother Michel Robinson (All of Jackson, MS); two sister in laws and three brother in laws (Florence, MS); and one half-sister Shirley R. Hall and three half-brothers and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.
