

Mr. Wyatt Adam George

June 16, 1947 - December 1, 2021

A TIME TO BE BORN:

Wyatt Adam George, affectionately called "W.A." by all his family and friends, was born June 16, 1947, to the late Grover Cleveland George and Frances Williamson-George, in Camden, Mississippi. He was the tenth of 14 children.

A TIME TO GROW AND SERVE:

Wyatt was baptized at an early age at Mount Zion Baptist Church, now known as Mount Zion Kirkwood Missionary Baptist Church. He was educated in the Camden, Mississippi School system. After graduating from Camden High School in 1965, he relocated to Gary, Indiana, and lived with his eldest sister, Lannie. In 1969, he enlisted in the US Army. He was transferred overseas for several years and was honorably discharged with six long years of service. Wyatt decided to return to Mississippi after living in Indiana for several years. While back at home, he met and fell in love with Geneva Mitchell, who became his lifelong friend. Seven children were conceived who shared a special bond with him even through adulthood. Wyatt loved his children and his family, and they loved him even more. His nieces and nephews considered him as an older brother. His siblings were protective of him. He was the life of any party and put a smile on everyone's face. His loving, shy, persona drew everyone he met close to him... just like a magnet; and he met no strangers.

He loved to cook and was truly an outdoors "country" man: fishing and hunting were at the top of his list. Wyatt may have been small in stature, but he had a big heart, always giving if he had it.

A TIME FOR HEAVENLY TRANSITION:

Wyatt made his transition on December 1, 2021. God embraced Wyatt in His arms and enfolded him in His love, exchanging time for eternity. He obeyed the will of God and bid his earthly life farewell. Embracing him with open arms as he transitioned from earth to his heavenly mansion were his parents, grandparents Wyatt Adams George/Lannie Chaplin-George and Adams Williamson/Alice & Fannie Harper-Williamson; brothers: Marion Cleveland (M.C.) "Bo", Sullivan, Columbus, and Kenneth "Billy"; sisters: Lannie Mae George-Dawson, Lucille George-Jackson, and Fannie George-Finch; and brothers-in-law: Joe Nathan Dawson, Arthur Jackson, C.D. Washington, Oscar Finch, and William Barner.

A TIME TO REMEMBER:

Wyatt leaves to cherish his loving, compassionate memory, daughters: Kimberly Johnson, Pearl MS, Lakeishia (Timothy) Lewis, Brandon MS, Angela (Hilton) Smith, Lena MS, Sanyeka (Horace) Ragsdale, Carthage MS, Saletha (Will) Houseton, Richland MS; sons: Wyatt (Ava) Johnson, Lena MS, and Caustavius "Tay" Johnson, Dallas TX; 18 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; lifelong friend and mother of his children, Geneva Mitchell, Lena MS; brothers: Ollie Thomas (Rhonda) of Fort Dodge IA and Johnny Lee of Steger IL; sisters: Doretha Barner of Camden MS, Nola V. (MacArthur) Andrews of Tylertown MS, Lavern (Alfred) Davis of Mansfield TX and Beverly (L.C.) Johnson of Canton, MS; sister-in-law, Dorothea Jones-George; special niece, Stacy George, Steger IL, who was like a daughter; a host of nephews, nieces, other relatives, and friends. The Lord made only one "W.A.". He will surely be missed by everyone who encountered him.

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." -Revelation 14:13

“ *To my Family:
We grew up together more like brothers and sisters than cousins.
W.A. was kind of quiet, I loved to hear him laugh, and the way he looked when he did.
We would go over to you all's house to play. Mama knew where we were and never had to worry.
The last time I saw and talked to W.A. was at Mt. Zion Church 4 yrs ago.
W.A. will be missed, my 1st cousin, but more like a brother.
Love,
Jean ❤️*

“ Heartbroken 💔😞
*I never thought the last time I would see you was in July when you were at the house. Thank God I got a chance to hug and say "I love you." My forever memory is when I put Uncle Billy out the house for messing with you.
RIP Uncle W. A. ❤️*

“ Too many memories to share them all. We grew up, our houses walking distance apart in the country together. We were more like siblings than 1st cousins. Jean and I spent so much time at y'all's house.

*The last conversation we had was at Mt Zion about 2 yrs ago. We laughed and talked, it reminded me of the good old days.
My heart broke into when I heard the news.
You will always be remembered with happy thoughts and love my dear Cousin, RIP ❤️❤️

“ Uncle Dough-Bay (WA), you were always to the life of the party. Everybody loved you for your free-giving and loving spirit. You were so shy and bold all at the same time. I still have recordings when you used to call and will play them just to here that nagging voice of yours...talk about getting on somebody's nerves, WOW, you were King Naggie!!!! Mom loved you like a son. She would also say.... "go tell that boy to sit down and shut up", LOL. We had fun and I love you!!!!!!
